Pamela Nine
Full Biography

Pamela Nine is an internationally recognized Professional Intuitive Counselor and Spiritual Medium. She is also an accredited writer, spiritual development educator and owner of Nine Wellness, located in Knoxville, TN (USA).

Her professional career of more than thirty years has been dedicated to wellness and helping others. She has an international following, and has provided service to thousands of people all over the world through her counseling, writings, apprenticeship program, classes and workshops.

Pamela is a natural-born psychic, intuitive and medium. Her gifts were discovered at the very young age of five. She inherited her unique gifts from her Maternal Grandmother and several past generations thereof.

When Pamela began doing this type of work professionally many years ago, she was guided to use the term "Intuitive Counseling" rather than the term "Psychic Reading" which is more commonly associated with psychic and medium work. She views her "Intuitive Counseling" work as being "in-service" and along with accurate detailed information, she also provides spiritual guidance and loving support to those who come to her for assistance. Pamela is actively involved in the spiritual community. She has helped many to discover and develop their own intuitive gifts and achieve personal spiritual advancement.

Throughout her professional career, Pamela has received extensive exposure in the press and media. She is featured on websites nationwide, made appearances on numerous television and radio broadcasts, and has been interviewed and featured in the U.S. and International press. Pamela received the coveted "Extraordinary Woman" award for her talents and giving back to the community, and is publicized as a "Messenger of Spirit" and "One of the most gifted Psychics and Mediums in America."

While Pamela continues fulfilling her vision and life purpose, she is in the process of writing a new book. Her new book will share her amazing personal journey and divine spiritual revelations. Her book is also designed to serve as a guide to others for becoming closer to Spirit, and for discovering their own personal, divine and spiritual gifts of inner awareness, truth, healing, and unconditional love.

Pamela's Gifts

Having discovered her gifts at the age of five, Pamela was fascinated by the colors she saw emanating from and within people. In later years, she learned these colors are known as auras. Over time and with immense study, she began to differentiate the color energies and associate them with personality traits and health issues. Through the ability to perceive these types of energies, Pamela is able to convey beneficial and even lifesaving, physical, mental, emotional and spiritual health related information to others.

Pamela's psychic and intuitive abilities enable her to see, hear and feel Spirit, both physically and empathically. She also receives precognitive information through dreams and visions. She uses her gifts to receive and convey messages and insights about a person's life which is associated with their aura colors, energetic balance, personality traits, issues of mental, emotional and physical health, relationships, career, goals, talents, life lessons, life purpose, spiritual path guidance, and their past, present and future soul experiences.

Pamela's gift of mediumship enables her to share information about the presence of angels, spirit guides, spirit guardians, and loved ones in the spirit world. Through her ability to communicate messages of love and hope, to and from souls who have crossed over, she often brings peace and comfort to grief suffering individuals and families. Pamela sees the loss of a loved one, as one of the hardest lessons of the life journey, and considers mediumship work one of the most rewarding forms of grief counseling available.

She credits all of her gifts to the grace of God and uses her special gifts as a "Messenger of Spirit" to receive and express spiritual messages through love and in-service. She welcomes all religions, traditions, spiritual paths and expressions. Her dedication and commitment are unparalleled in bringing forth spiritual and divine wisdom within her practices and teachings. Pamela often says, 'My work in-service is very rewarding because those led to me for guidance, often discover a new understanding of the spiritual and divine gifts we have all been given, and the eternal life therein.'

Personal Background

Pamela was born in Knoxville, TN and raised on what was once her grandparents' 92-acre farm in Knox County, TN. She currently lives in Knoxville and her two "miracle" sons, Andrew and Nicholas are now in college. Her two "miracle" sons were predicted by Pamela's dear friend and well known psychic, Bobby Drinnon, years after medical doctors diagnosed her unable to have biological children.

The unconditional love of Pamela's late Maternal Grandmother and the exposure to her traditional Cherokee heritage played a major role in her spiritual path and desire to find truth beyond conventional teachings of religion and science. During this search for knowledge and truth, a mirage of life-changing events occurred. Through each process and lesson thereof, Pamela experienced countless miracles in her life and was spiritually guided to the knowledge that her true life purpose is to help and teach others through her spiritual gifts and love.

Professional Achievements

All throughout Pamela's life, she has felt helping others is her true purpose. In 1984, her professional career officially began as a surgical assistant to physicians of Ophthalmology, Facial Cosmetic and Reconstructive Plastic Surgery. In 1986, following extensive medical training, Pamela entered the comprehensive field of Permanent Cosmetics Dermapigmentation and became a Licensed, Board Certified Dermapigmentationist, Instructor, and Fellow of the American Academy of Micropigmentation. She also founded “Permanent Cosmetics Derma Centre” and “Permanent Cosmetics International Training Institute.”

As time went on, Pamela realized she was being guided to also help people discover their “inner” beauty, along with their “outer” beauty, and in 2001, she opened her own wellness business. Pamela became a Certified Reiki Master and Teacher in 2003. She was also Ordained as a Non-Denominational Minister and continued online studies of world religions to receive a Doctorate of Philosophy Degree in Religious studies in 2004. Over three decades later, Pamela is still in the profession of helping others through her Nine Wellness business.

As an accredited and published writer, Pamela’s articles and writings have been featured in multiple media venues. She has also had both the honor and privilege of studying and working with a number of very gifted and highly respected individuals and spiritual teachers in her personal and professional life.

Missing children is also an area of personal significance for Pamela. She is very dedicated to the delicate and confidential nature of these types of cases. She uses her gifts to profile and work with families and law enforcement officials for current and cold missing child cases nationwide.

Pamela offers telephone, personal and group sessions by appointment for Intuitive Counseling and Business Counseling. She is also available for event bookings, workshops, speaking engagements and media appearances in the U.S. and abroad.
